

Who lives here?

Read the poem out loud.

Did you notice that it asks a question in each verse?

Using the poem as a pattern and using your own ideas you are going to create your own 'Who lives here?' poem. You will draw the animals you choose in their homes first.

Fold a piece of plain A4 paper in half and then fold it in half again to create four sections. Draw four of your own animals' homes in the four sections on the paper. Then draw the animal or insect in their home with a speech bubble saying 'This is my home!' Then use your 4 pages to write your own 'Who lives here?' poem using the same pattern as the one below.

Who lives here?

Who lives in the web
Hanging on the garden wall?
'I do' said the spider
'This is my home.'

Who lives in the pond
Sparkling under the sun?
'I do' said the fish
'This is my home.'

Who lives in the nest
Hiding in the old oak tree?
'I do' said the bird
'This is my home.'

Who lives under the stone
Lying on the damp earth?
'I do' said the beetle
'This is my home.'

Who lives in the house
Standing on the busy street?
'I do' I said 'I live here.
This is my home.'
